MARY CLOWES VILLAGE HALL

Garden Show 26th August

Thank you to all who exhibited at this year's show, bought at the Auction and helped to make our annual event very enjoyable.

With all growers experiencing the problems of the hot weather, our entry of 103 exhibits in the vegetable classes and 40 in the flower classes were similar to last year. Traybake entries were 10, however the number of entries (20) in the children's classes were very disappointing.

Prizewinners:

1st: Hilda Tideswell

2nd: Alison Ball

3rd: Joy Chadfield

Traybake winner: Celia Prince

Juniors winner: Romily Bourne

Juniors runner up: Charlotte Haslam

Logo Design winner: Charlotte Haslam

NORBURY AND ROSTON PARISH COUNCIL

Role of your Parish Council

Here's a quick reminder that we're here to help deliver services, represent residents on planning matters and endeavour to secure grants to improve the parish of Norbury & Roston. We are funded by what's known as a "precept" and this pays for the Clerk, office consumables, insurance & licenses etc. Parish Councillors receive no remuneration.

We are supported by Sue Bull (Conservative) on the Derbyshire Dales District Council and Steve Bull (Conservative) on the Derbyshire County Council. We meet bi-monthly at the village hall, for which all residents of the village are most welcome to attend.

A poster displaying a list of current Parish Councillors and our Clerk is displayed on notice boards around the village, along with meeting minutes and an email address for correspondence. We want to represent you as best we can, so please do reach out to us individually or through our Clerk if you have a thought, question or need.
